

PERSON CENTRED PRACTICE ONE PAGE PROFILE

What is important to your child? What is important for your child?
A Guide for Parents and Carers

One page profiles capture important information to enable teachers and other professionals to personalise learning for your child.

One page profiles allow professionals to be knowledgeable about the strengths, interests and specific support needs of your child.

One page profiles reflect what is important to your child and how best to support them.

One page profiles grow and develop over the year and can be the basis for a more detailed person centred plan.

One page profiles are a short summary of person-centred information.

One page profiles are a way for you to share your knowledge and expertise on how best to support your child.

One page profiles are written in consultation with your child. They are a way for your child to have a voice.

One page profiles give YOU a wonderful opportunity to share with your child and with professionals all those magical aspects of your child and their development. This is so important for everyone to be aware of, and to appreciate.
